

Classified

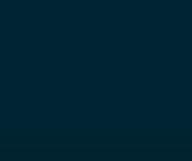

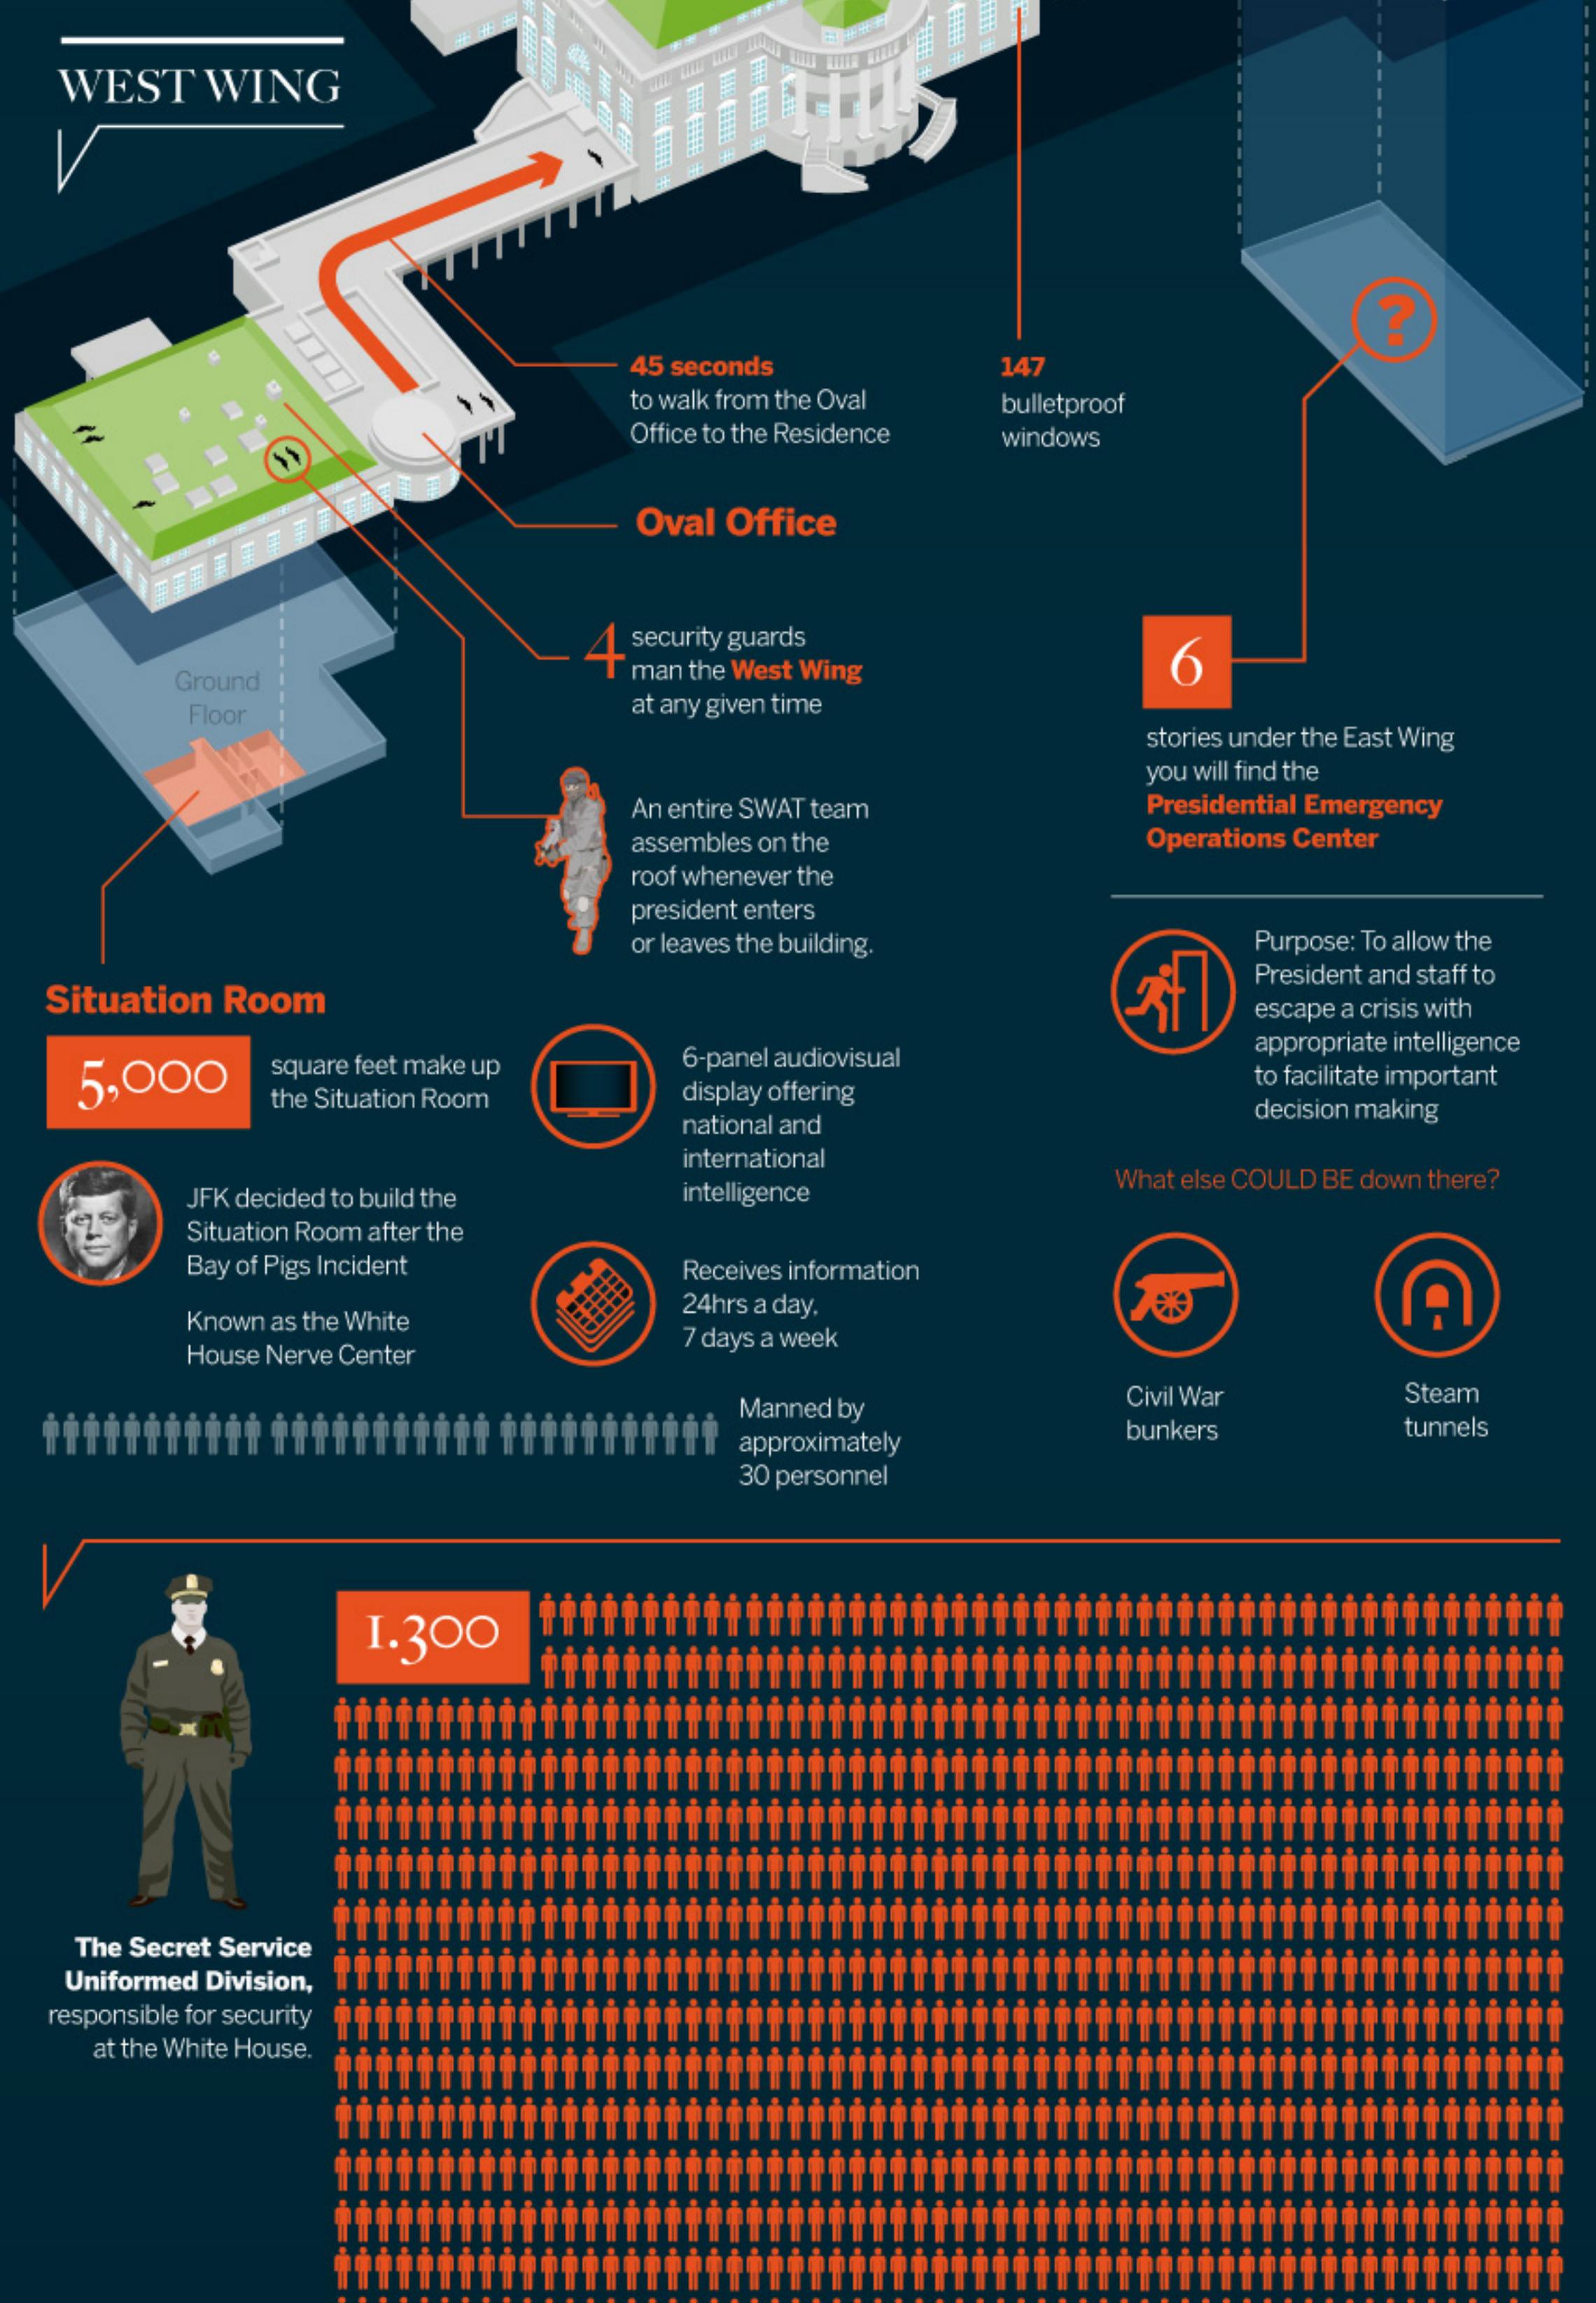

Protecting the Most Famous Residence in the world

OLYMPUS HAS FALLEN

In Theaters March 22

White House Security By the Numbers:

The Secret Service Uniformed Division, responsible for security at the White House.

1,300

A 20-year-old private in Maryland stole a helicopter from the base where he was stationed and landed it on the South Lawn. He took off with two police helicopters in pursuit, returning to the White House lawn under gunfire. He was ultimately sentenced to 1 year in prison.

A man drove his Chevy Impala through the gate and threatened to detonate the bombs he was wearing—they turned out to only be flares.

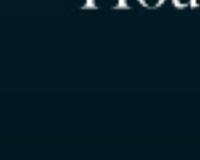

1974

Target:
The White House

Others have threatened the White House from outside its gates with both samurai swords and sawed-off shotguns; a man who managed to penetrate a White House window with a bullet in 1994 is still serving jail time.

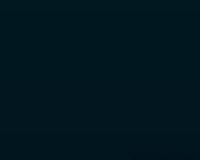

A man was killed on impact when he flew a stolen Cessna airplane into the residence. He had been hoping to assassinate the president and his family while they slept. The Clintons were not in the residence when the aircraft crashed into the south wall of the White House.

1983

The fence in place since 1983 and expanded in 1990 to prevent detonation of car bombs from reaching the White House

1994

Others have threatened the White House from outside its gates with both samurai swords and sawed-off shotguns; a man who managed to penetrate a White House window with a bullet in 1994 is still serving jail time.

A man was killed on impact when he flew a stolen Cessna airplane into the residence. He had been hoping to assassinate the president and his family while they slept. The Clintons were not in the residence when the aircraft crashed into the south wall of the White House.

THE HUFFINGTON POST

visual.ly

Source: Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit, sed diam nonummy nibh euismod tincidunt ut laoreet dolore magna aliquam erat volutpat.